Saturday, March 29*th*, 1746. [Numb. 627.]

LONDON, December 14.

UPWARDS of Sixty Veſſels have been lately hired by the Government, which are mann'd out, to cruize and prevent any Enemies landing

All the Life Guards and Horſe Grenadiers are ordered to mount at the firing of ſome Guns, which are to be a Signal.

Laſt Monday Two new Regiments, rais'd by the Nobility and Gentry in Hampſhire, under the Command of the Duke of Bolton, and Sir George Muſgrave, Bart. march'd from Wincheſter for the Sea Coaſt, to be ready to oppoſe any Foreign Invaders.

Yeſterday in the Afternoon arriv'd an Expreſs from Plymouth, with Advice, that his Majeſty's Ship the Hampton Court, Capt. Moſyn, who had been but ſix Days on a Cruize, was returned, and had brought in with him a large French Privateer of St. Malo's, called the Lys, of 32 Guns, and 230 Men.

We hear from the Iſland of Jerſey, that their Privateers have landed upon the Iſland of Chartſey, belonging to the French, within two Leagues of the Coaſt of Normandy, and ſet Fire to and demoliſh'd the Fortifications.

Deal, Dec. 13. This Morning arrived here two Dover Privateers, who have brought in with them 2 French Tranſports; there were 8 ſail of them, from Boulogne bound to Dunkirk, under Convoy of a French Man of War of 32 Guns, and they have Cloaths and Bedding on board for Soldiers. They have ſent a third into the Downs, to Admiral Vernon.

Dec. 17. Yeſterday 26 Tranſports fell down the River, in order to proceed too Williamſtadt, to bring over the Remainder of the Britiſh Cavalry from Flanders.

We are informed, that when the Duke's Army was in purſuit of the Rebels between Macclesfield and Manchester, one of the Turnpike Men endeavoured to put them out of the Road the Rebels had taken, which was ſoon diſcovered, and the Man was inſtantly taken and hang'd on a Tree for his Treachery.

The Militia of the Counties of Eſſex and Suffolk are raiſing with all Expedition, to prevent any Foreign Troops landing on their Coaſts.

An Expreſs arrived this Morning from Admiral Vernon, brings Advice, that the French Embarkation was laſt in the Ports of Oſtend and Dunkirk on Sunday laſt.

On Saturday laſt the following Regiments of Foot, viz. Royal Iriſh, Royal Scotch, and Welch Fuziliers, march'd thro' the City for the Counties of Kent and Suſſex, to be ready as Occaſion ſhall require, to oppoſe the Deſigns of the French on this Kingdom.

The ſame Day a Squadron of General Ligonier's Horſe, and General Hawley's and Sir Robert Rich's Dragoons, paſs'd through the City for the ſaid Counties.

And on Sunday Lord John Murray's Highland Regiment came from Enfield to the Borough of Southwark, from whence they march'd Yeſterday.

We hear that 10,000 Heſſians are to embark immediately at Willemſtadt; great Part of which are to be landed directly in Scotland.

It is ſaid the Dutch Admiral, &c are gone to convoy over the Heſſian Troops, which gave Riſe to a Report, that the Dutch had ſign'd a Neutrality with France.

We hear that 20,000 Woollen Splatterdaſhes are ordered for the Uſe of his Majeſty's Army, during the Inclemency of the Weather.

Laſt Friday two Veſſels fell down from the Tower, having on board Arms, and other warlike Stores; alſo Flannel Waiſtcoats, Sheets, &c. for the Uſe of his Majeſty's Forces in Scotland.

Laſt Week an Order was ſent for a double Guard to be put on all Magazines, till further Orders, on the Eſſex and Kentiſh Shores. And we hear, at the ſame Time Directions were given for erecting Beacons along the Coaſt from Portſmouth to Hull.

They write from Bewdley, that the Gates of that Town are ſhut every Night, and a Party of the Townſmen have form'd themſelves into a Regiment, and keep Garriſon Night and Day; ſo that ſhould the Rebels come that Way they would hold out a Week. On Tueſday they ſeiz'd a Perſon who was viewing the Fortifications, who appears to be a Spy. There were found Letters about him which have made very important Diſcoveries and were ſent immediately to the Secretary of State

As Preparations are making to invade this Kingdom, the Safety and Defence of which demand the utmoſt Care, his Majeſty, by the Advice of his Privy Council, has ſtrictly charged and commanded the Warden of the Cinque Ports, his Lieutenants, Deputy or Deputies, and the Lieutenants, and Deputy Lieutenants, of Counties, and all Sheriffs, Juſtices of the Peace, Mayors, Bailliffs, and other Officers and Miniſters, Civil and Military, within their reſpective Counties, Cities, Towns, and Diviſions, that they cauſe the Coaſts to be carefully watched, and upon the Approach of the Enemy, immediately to cauſe all Horſes, Oxen, and Cattle which may be fit for Draught or Cartiage, and not actually employed in his Majeſty's Service, or in the Defence of the Country, and alſo (as far as may be practicable) all other Cattle and Proviſions, to be driven Twenty Miles at leaſt, from the Place where the Enemy ſhall attempt or appear to attempt to land, and to ſecure the ſame, ſo as they may not fall into their Hands or Power. Never theleſs, it is his Majeſty's Will and Pleaſure, that the reſpective Owners thereof may ſuffer as little Damage, Loſs, or Inconvenience as may be conſiſtent with the Publick Safety: And all other Perſons are hereby further ſtrictly charged and commanded to be aiding and aſſiſting in the Execution of the ſaid Royal Command.

Dec. 19. Tueſday Orders were ſent by the Lords of the Admiralty, to all Commanders of ſhips in the River, not to fire a Gun upon any Account, that the Signal Guns may be the more plainly heard in caſe of any Invaſion or Inſurrection.

They write from Bruſſels, that the French are uſing their utmoſt Endeavours to bring the Dutch into a Neutrality

Early this Morning arrived an Expreſs from his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland, dated on Tueſday Morning from Lancaſter, by which we learn, that his Royal Highneſs had reſolved to continue the Purſuit of the Rebels, and was then preparing to follow the Army under his Command, the advanced Party of which under General Oglethorpe, had been in Sight of the Rear of the Rebels, but there had not been any Action His Royal Highneſs will purſue them quite to Scotland, ſo that his Return will not be ſo ſpeedy as reported.

The Owners of the York and Eagle Privateers of Dover, received Yeſterday an Account, that they were arrived in the Downs, with 2 more French Tranſports, with Soldier's Cloaths and Bedding on board, which they took off Dunkirk; and the ſaid Privateers ſail'd immediately again on a Cruize on the ſame Station

Yeſterday in the Evening a Gentleman, whoſe Name is Morgan, was brought to London in a Coach and ſix from Cheſter, eſcorted by a large Party of Horſe Guards, and committed to the Cuſtody of one of his Majeſty's Meſſengers for Examination.

This Morning came Advice, that the Carliſle Privateer, Capt. Owens, of Dover, ſent in there Yeſterday a French Tranſports, bound bound from Boap to Boulogne, which makes in all seven taken by the Dover Privateers.

On Tuesday a Man 70 Years old, was brought to Town from Barnet, where he was taken up for a Spy, and a great Number of treasonable Papers were also found upon him. He was carried to the Savoy, in order for further Examination.

The Baron de Bretzelaer, appointed by their High Mightinesses to execute a private Commission at this Court, is daily expected in Town from the Hague.

Dover, Dec 12. By a Letter arrived here To-day, we have Advice, that the Embarkation of Troops is carrying on with great Expedition at Dunkirk, the Vessels intended to be employed for that Purpose being most of them already there. It's said there is Furniture put on board these Ships for 1000 Horse.

Dover, Dec. 20. Yesterday in the Forenoon two of our Privateers fell in with a Fleet of Transports from Dunkirk, bound as supposed, to Calais or Boulogne, to take in Troops. Mostly Fishing Boats and small Vessels, and about 60 Sail of them. About 27 of which the said Privateers drove on shore near Calais. They blow'd up one laden with Cannon, Powder, and other Warlike Stores, sunk two, and brought three away, two of which are in this Pier, and the third lost in our Bay.

Those that are taken have all some Warlike Stores on Board, as small Cannon, Powder and Ball, Horse Collars, and Poles about seven Feet long spiked with Iron at both Ends.

London, Dec 21. This Morning arrived an Express from the Duke, with Advice, that he had entirely defeated the Rear of the Rebel Army, with the Loss of 4 Officers, and 40 private Men; and was pursuing their main Body.

Capt William Bulley, Nephew of the late Sir John Jennings, Commander of the Sheerness Man of War, of 20 Guns, and who took the Sutil Privateer, of 36 Guns, with a great Number of the Pretender's Officers now Prisoners in the Tower, is by the Lords of the Admiralty appointed Captain of the Ludlow Castle of 30 Guns.

On Thursday 80 Chests of Arms were sent from the Tower, with Swords, Bayonets, &c. for Edinburgh, to arm the well-affected Clans.

They write from Edinburgh of the 10th Instant, that Brigadier Price's Regiment march'd from thence to Stirling the 7th, and that on the 9th, Colonel Ligonier's Foot, with Colonel Cochrane, who is to be under the Command of General Blakeney, went the same Way. The whole regular Troops are assembling there, in order to stop the Rebels passing over the Forth; they are to be joined by the Men from Glasgow, and other well affected People in that Country; and when join'd, will make between 3 and 4000 Men.

It was the York and Carlisle Privateers of Dover, Captains Grosvenor and Owens, that on Thursday last fell in with the French Fleet of Transports, consisting of 60 Sail, bound from Dunkirk to Boulogne, of which they took Three, burnt Two, sunk One, and drove Eighteen ashore, all within Gun-shot of Calais. This is look'd on as a most gallant Engagement. These two brave Commanders are not come in themselves, but are determined to do their Country more Service.

Cork, Dec. 12. The Ambuscade Privateer, of London, Capt. Cooke, brought into the Cove this Evening, a Spanish Ship, that mounted 10 Guns. She was bound from St. Andero to Ferrol for Orders, and from thence to Scotland; but was driven out of the Way by contrary Winds, and was taken 80 Leagues N W. of Ferrol. She has on board 2500 Muskets and Bayonets, 110 Barrels of Gun-powder, 14,000 Flints, 70 Chests of Musquet Balls, weighing 400 lb. each, and 12,000 Pistols. There were 60,000 Pistoles in Bags on board, which, with the Vessel's Papers and Guns were thrown overboard, save 1217 of the Pistoles. There is one Lestus, a Captain of Spanish Horse, and 27 Men on board; he says his Father left this Kingdom about 60 Years ago, and was afterwards a Banker in Paris. There is also on board one Carrol, a Priest, born in Dublin; who says he can make great Discoveries, if he meets with Favour. He says also, that there are Four Spanish Men of War and Three Transports at Ferrol, bound to Dunkirk.

London, Dec. 24. This Morning came Advice, that the York Privateer, Capt. Grosvenor, was got into Margate Roads, but very much shatter'd in her late Engagement with the French Transports, &c. off Calais last Thursday. Capt. Grosvenor, his second Lieutenant, and several of his Men are much wounded. Since his destroying the Transports, he has taken a French Dogger Privateer, the Capt. of which was killed in the Engagement.

On Sunday Morning arrived a Courier with the Treaty of Peace between the King of Prussia, the Queen of Hungary, and the King of Poland, fully ratified and signed by the several Parties; the King of Great Britain being the Mediator.

And we are inform'd the King of Prussia, notwithstanding he is in Possession of Dresden, has agreed to this Treaty upon the same Terms as were proposed to him some Months since. —This News, which we have from undoubted Authority, must certainly give Joy to every true Briton, as it must still encrease our Power to distress and keep under our avowed base Enemies, the French.
